Subject: Wejo, a Global Leader in Connected Vehicle Data, to List Publicly in the U.S. Through a Business Combination with Virtuoso Acquisition Corp.

Dear [Investor],

I am excited to share with you that recently Wejo, a global leader in connected vehicle data, announced its intent to list publicly through a business combination with Virtuoso Acquisition Corp. (NASDAQ:VOSO). Wejo sources and uses connected vehicle data to revolutionize the way people live, work and travel, and our listing positions Wejo to continue building the industry standard within the connected vehicle ecosystem. Wejo's technology is differentiated through our direct connection to integrated vehicle data sensors which provide in-journey collection and insight capabilities, and we are further differentiated in the market through our strong partnerships with OEMs and Tier 1 suppliers and with premier backers such as GM and Palantir.

I invite you to read our press release here for more information on the announcement and visit our website at www.wejo.com/investor-relations to learn more about our Company, including a replay of our recent investor presentations and access to VOSO SEC filings about Wejo and the combination.

While we are not yet a public company, I am committed to building a strong investor relations program to provide transparency and gather feedback from investors. If you would like to start a conversation, please reach out to me at investor.relations@wejo.com to set up a video conference or phone call. Richard Barlow, our Founder and CEO, and I will also be available at the 5th Annual Needham Virtual Automotive Tech Conference on June 8th, where we will be presenting as well as holding one-on-one meetings with investors. We also will participate in other conferences in the coming weeks and months, including the Baird Global Consumer, Technology & Services Conference on June 9 and the NYSE Investor Conference on June 15.

I look forward to your feedback and I hope we can begin a dialogue soon.

Best regards,

John Maxwell | Chief Financial Officer

Virtuoso Acquisition Corp.’s (“Virtuoso”) and Wejo Limited’s, a private limited company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales with company number 08813730 (“Wejo”) actual results may differ from their expectations, estimates, and projections and, consequently, you should not rely on these forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. Words such as “expect,” “estimate,” “project,” “budget,” “forecast,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “may,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “believes,” “predicts,” “potential,” “continue,” and similar expressions (or the negative versions of such words or expressions) are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. Most of these factors are outside Virtuoso’s and Wejo’s control and are difficult to predict. Factors that may cause such differences include, but are not limited to: (i) the occurrence of any event, change, or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”); (ii) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Virtuoso, Wejo Group Limited, a company incorporated under the laws of Bermuda (the “Company”) and/or Wejo following the announcement of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein; (iii) the inability to complete the proposed business combination, including due to failure to obtain approval of the stockholders of Virtuoso, certain regulatory approvals, or the satisfaction of other conditions to closing in the Merger Agreement; (iv) the occurrence of any event, change, or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement or could otherwise cause the transaction to fail to close; (v) the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on Wejo’s business and/or the ability of the parties to complete the proposed business combination; (vi) the inability to obtain or maintain the listing of the Company’s common shares on the Nasdaq Stock Market following the proposed business combination; (vii) the risk that the proposed business combination disrupts current plans and operations as a result of the announcement and consummation of the proposed business combination; (viii) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the proposed business combination, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of Wejo to grow and manage growth profitably, and retain its key employees; (ix) costs related to the proposed business combination; (x) changes in applicable laws or regulations; and (xi) the possibility that Wejo, Virtuoso or the Company may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors. The foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. Additional information concerning certain of these and other risk factors is contained in Virtuoso’s most recent filings with the SEC and will be contained on Form S-4 (the “Form S-4”), including the proxy statement/prospectus expected to be filed in connection with the proposed business combination. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning Virtuoso, Wejo or the Company, the transactions described herein or other matters and attributable to Virtuoso, the Company or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. Each of Virtuoso, Wejo and the Company expressly disclaims any obligations or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained herein to reflect any change in their expectations with respect thereto or any change in events, conditions, or circumstances on which any statement is based, except as required by law.
